MASTER LIST OF CAREERS

TERM TITLES

As you read through the Master List of Careers, you will note that the same term titles are used in many different occupational categories. For example, assistant, apprentice, helper appear many times in different industries. The list below is provided to help you see the relationship between careers that share the same term title but are found in different industries.

As the term definition does not describe any specific occupation, no training requirements are indicated. This information is given for specific careers in the Master List.

C6661 Apprentice (any ind.)
C6662 Assistant (any ind.)
C6663 Chief Engineer (prof. & tech.)
C6664 Consultant (prof. & tech.)
C6685 Engineer (prof. & tech.)
C6665 Grader (prof. & tech.)
C6666 Helper (any ind.)
C6667 Inspector (any ind.)
C6668 Intern
C6669 Labourer/Elemental worker
C6670 Manufacturer's Service Representative
C6671 Notary Public
C6672 Research Engineer
C6673 Resident Physician or Surgeon
C6674 Sampler
C6675 Scientist
C6677 Technician
C6678 Technologist
C6679 Tester
C6680 Working Proprietor

MASTER TITLES

The master titles used in the list describe occupations that involve the same duties in different industries. For example, the responsibilities of a supervisor/foreman would be much the same in all types of industry.

As the master definition does not describe any specific occupation, no training requirements are indicated.

C6648 Design Engineer (Prof. & tech.)
C6649 Engineering Technician (Prof. & tech.)
C6650 Engineering Technologist (Prof. & tech.)
C6651 General Manager (Prof. & tech.)
C6652 Life Sciences Technician (Prof. & tech.)
C6653 Life Sciences Technologist
C6654 Manager
C6655 Managing Supervisor
C6656 Physical Sciences Technician
C6657 Physical Sciences Technologist
C6658 Salesman
C6659 Salesperson
C6660 Supervisor/Foreman

When used in the description of a career, the abbreviation N.E.C. means not elsewhere classified.

The Ministry of Education gratefully acknowledges the co-operation of the Department of Manpower and Immigration in providing career descriptions from the Canadian Classification and Dictionary of Occupations (CCDO).

Major Group 85 — Product Fabricating, Assembling and Repairing Occupations

Minor Group 853 — Fabricating, Assembling, Installing and Repairing Occupations

This minor group includes occupations concerned with fabricating, assembling, installing and repairing such electrical and electronic equipment as motors, generators and batteries, domestic appliances, communications equipment, data-processing equipment, and radio and television receivers; and such electrical and electronic components and parts as coils, transformers, light bulbs, cathode-ray and electron tubes, capacitors, resistors and printed circuitry. Occupations concerned with repairing office equipment, such as bookkeeping machines and typewriters, are classified in minor group 858, business and commercial machine mechanics and repairmen. Occupations concerned with installing and repairing precision instruments, such as scientific, engineering, optical and medical instruments and apparatus, are classified in minor group 858, precision instrument mechanics and repairmen. Occupations concerned with fabricating and assembling other equipment primarily of a mechanical nature, but which may be electrically or electronically activated, are classified in their appropriate minor groups within major group 85, product fabricating, assembling and repairing occupations.
